ABOUT THE STATE.

Items of Interest Gleaned from Our Exchanges.

George W. Morrow of Burlington, who recently resigned as superintendent of the Vermont Anti-Saloon League, has accepted election to a similar position in Michigan.

George S. Wheatley of Brookfield, a student at the University of Vermont, met with a painful accident while at work Wednesday in the mechanical building. Mr. Wheatley was using a circular saw when his hand slipped and the index finger was fractured in such a way as to necessitate an amputation at the second joint.

A majority of the Brattleboro merchants and business firms generally have signed an agreement, which was circulated yesterday, whereby they pledge themselves not to advertise hereafter on theatre, church, society or school programmes, or to purchase advertising space in booklets or anything of this character. The frequency with which advertising schemes are urged upon the merchants makes this action on their part seem necessary for their protection.

The safe and fixtures for the Central Savings Bank and Trust Co. of Barton Landing have arrived and will be installed in the room of the institution being fitted upon the first floor of Buchanan's block. The bank expects to be open for business February 27. The organization was recently incorporated with a capital of $25,000. The officers are as follows: President, J. C. Turnbull; vice president, C. H. French; treasurer, R. A. Bean; directors, Doctor Rowell, C. H. Jones, J. M. Wyman, W. C. Twombly and C. S. Skinner.

Luman A. Drew of Burlington, died at his home here Monday about 6 o'clock of valvular disease of the heart. His health had been poor since December, but he had been confined to the house only two days. The funeral was held Wednesday from the home. Mr. Drew was born in 1832, and is survived by a wife and one daughter, Miss Carrie L. Drew. He had held many offices, being sheriff of Chittenden county from 1872 to 1882, and later cattle commissioner and deputy United States marshal. He was in charge of the Vermont building at the Columbian Exposition at Chicago in 1893.

L. H. Sheldon of Fair Haven has been offered by Chairman George Aitken of the state board of agriculture the position made vacant by the dismissal of Enoch S. Cobb, of Monmouth, Ill., whose methods in writing to his home papers in an uncompromising way of Vermont while speaking at the agricultural meetings in the state under a contract with the board of agriculture were first exposed in The Messenger. Chairman Aitken had listened to the paper on "Market Gardening" presented by Mr. Sheldon, at the meeting of the Vermont State Horticultural society at Vergennes and was so well pleased with it and its presentation that he offered him a chance to read it at the meetings of the board throughout the state.

William Walker of Swanton was arrested Monday by Deputy Sheriff William Medor. For some time he has been acting queerly, but was not considered dangerous. Later, however, he has been getting worse and at the present time his relatives are trying to poison him. It was discovered that he was carrying a knife and razor with him, and it was thought best to have him taken into custody. Complaint was made to the selectmen and they sent Drs. C. E. Allen and C. B. Dunn to examine him. He showed so plainly that he was insane that he was at once locked up. He has been in the habit of taking coal from the railroad cars and was arrested on that charge while the proper steps were being taken to have him committed to the state hospital for the insane at Waterbury.

80TH BIRTHDAY.

St. Johnsbury Couple of That Age Have Been Married Sixty-Seven Years.

St. Johnsbury, Feb. 24.—Mr. and Mrs. Samuel A. Wright of this village, probably the oldest couple in Vermont, had a pleasant celebration Tuesday in honor of Mr. Wright's ninetieth birthday. Mr. Wright was born February 21, 1815, and Mrs. Wright was ninety years old last New Year's day. They were married January 3, sixty-seven years ago at the home of Mrs. Wright's sister, Mrs. Nathaniel Goss, of St. Johnsbury Center. They were married by Justice of the Peace Digson and after the ceremony they went to Ryegate where Mr. Wright had work in Slack's hotel.

Fifty years ago they returned to St. Johnsbury where, with the exception of a few years at Lyndonville, they have since resided. Mr. Wright was master pointer in the St. J. and L. C. shops here for many years. In late years they have made their home with their daughter, Mrs. M. J. Belknap, by whom they are tenderly cared for. They have one son, H. G. Wright, who lives in Portland, Oregon. They can boast of a family of four generations, as besides their children they have three grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Norwich Alumni In Boston.

About 50 graduates of Norwich University met at the American House in Boston for the annual banquet and meeting of the Boston Alumni association Tuesday night. Major C. H. Spooner, president of the university, was present for the first time before the Boston alumni. George D. Thomas, '76, presided at the meeting. President Spooner spoke of the work accomplished during the first year of his incumbency in increasing the building funds of the university, he having met with marked success. William M. Jones spoke for the New York Alumni association and expressed much pleasure at the increase in the building fund of the alumni. Officers were elected as follows: President, George D. Thomas, '76; vice-presidents, Dr. J. S. McAllister, C. H. Spooner, Walter E. Haslam; secretary and treasurer, E. Weston Clark; executive committee, the above officers and Edwin W. Gaylor, Guy G. Russell, George F. Abbott.

UNHAPPINESS DISPELLED.

Men and Women Unanimous About It.

Many women weep and wail and refuse to be comforted because their once magnificent tresses have become thin and faded. Many men incline to profanity because the flies bite through the thin thatch on their craniums. It will be good news to the miserable of both sexes to learn that Newbro's Herpicide has been placed upon the market. This is the new scalp germicide and antiseptic that acts by destroying the germ or microbe that is the underlying cause of all hair destruction. Herpicide is a new preparation, made after a new formula on an entirely new principle. Anyone who has tried it will testify as to its worth. Try it yourself and be convinced. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

EAST MONTPELIER.

The town auditors began their work Tuesday morning.

F. P. Willard and wife were in Barre on business Monday.

The Grange is to make a move towards starting a public library in town.

Phil Batchelder is getting out lumber to build a horse barn next summer.

Fred Townsend took possession Monday of the meat market he bought last week of F. P. Willard.

The water situation grows no better and a large part of the time of many farmers is spent in drawing water.

G. H. Clark drove to Woodbury Tuesday with Mr. Blake, who has been teaching on East Hill and whose home is in Woodbury.

Warren Howland and wife were in Montpelier Monday, where they took a deed of a large farm they recently bought in Waterbury.

Last Monday night C. F. Dudley had a 40 pound shoat stolen from his pig pen a short distance from his house and another pig was stolen from the same place a week before.

Among those ill in town and under the doctor's care are Philip LaPoint, Mrs. Philena Willard, Mrs. Harry Vincent, and Alice and Ellen, little daughters of Ira Wright.

WILLIAMSTOWN.

Miss Annie Flint is working at Elbert Jackson's.

Mrs. George Williams has nearly recovered from German measles.

The Reading club meets with Mrs. L. M. Seaver Saturday afternoon.

The Dramatic Company go to Brookfield tonight to present "Dot, the Miner's Daughter."

Keep the masquerade in mind, and be ready Tuesday evening. Get a new face and surprise your friends.

Leo Jeffords who has been quite ill with diphtheria has not been as well lately, his heart being weakened by the disease.

Dr. Tindall's horse left him Wednesday at Joseph Gregory's and started for home at a lively gait, but instead of stopping also went up the quarry road until met by parties who took him home. No damage was done to the horse or sleigh in any way.

Roy D. Cross of Montpelier.

Montpelier, Feb. 24.—The funeral of Roy D. Cross, who died at the Heaton hospital Wednesday afternoon of paralysis and Bright's disease, was held this afternoon. Mr. Cross was born in Montpelier 76 years ago. He was in the mercantile business for many years in the West and also in the South, returning to Montpelier five years ago to reside with his sister, Mrs. Lucia Farwell, the only surviving member of the Cross family.

Fraud Exposed.

A few counterfeiters have lately been making and trying to sell imitations of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, and other medicines, thereby defrauding the public. It is to warn you to beware of such people, who seek to profit, through stealing the reputation of remedies which have been successfully curing disease for over 35 years. A sure protection to you is our name on the wrapper. Look for it on all Dr. King's or Bucklen's remedies, as all others are mere imitations. H. E. BUCKLEN & CO., Chicago, Ill., and Windsor, Canada. Sold at the Red Cross Pharmacy and Parlor Drug Store, Barre, Vt.

Twice as Many Eggs.

The man who can make two spears of grass grow where one grew before is certainly a benefactor. What shall we say of a Poultry Food that makes hens lay twice as many eggs as before? Fred W. Frost of Lyndon, Vt., says that his hens did that after feeding them "Page's Perfected Poultry Food." Here's his letter: "After using 'Page's Perfected Poultry Food' for two weeks my hens laid more than twice as many eggs as before. I intend to use it right along."
